

Feigenholtz shares green legislation initiatives with local students

State Rep. Sara Feigenholtz (12th) visited with students at Bernard Zell Anshe Emet Day School on Monday to discuss environmental initiatives in the Illinois House. Pictured are 7th grade students from the school who discussed environmental proposals currently being considered by the state legislature with Her. The students have been learning about environmental issues for their upcoming trip to the state capitol.