

Feigenholtz Addresses the College of Complexes

The North Side State Representative spoke at the weekly forum about things like state pensions and Medicaid.

February 9, 2013

State Rep. Sara Feigenholtz (D-Chicago) attended the College of Complexes, a weekly forum for free speech, as a guest speaker last Saturday.

In a wide-ranging discussion, attendees debated topics ranging from state pensions to Medicaid expansion. The meeting, held at Lincoln Restaurant, marked the first time Rep. Feigenholtz had addressed the college since 1994, before she was first elected to office.

The college, known for its probing remark-and-rebuttal format, celebrated its 62nd anniversary on January 6th of this year.