Feigenholtz Commends Soon-To-Be Eagle Scout David Fite for Standing Up for Equality

Chicago, Ill. – State Rep. Sara Feigenholtz, D-Chicago, expressed her admiration for David Fite, the soon-to-be decorated Eagle Scout, on the completion of his Eagle rank assignment. Fite tied an expert bowline to the colorful fence outside of Nettelhorst School located in the 12th district that Feigenholtz represents.

“David chose this as his Eagle Scout assignment after successfully lobbying the Boy Scouts of America to accept openly gay members. I couldn’t be prouder to know this amazing young man,” beamed Feigenholtz.

Nettelhorst students have completed the Fence Project for the past seven years. The Project began as a response to gay bullying that occurred at the school and continues to serve as a colorful reminder that “love is what we all have in common.”

“David Fite exemplifies courage and leadership in our diverse neighborhood. His actions should serve as an example to all of us,” Feigenholtz said.
