Feigenholtz to Host Holiday Open House at District Office

CHICAGO, Ill. – To remain accessible during the holiday season, State Representative Sara Feigenholtz, Alderman Tom Tunney, and Congressman Mike Quigley will host a Holiday Open House at their office, located at 3223 N. Sheffield, Suite A, in Lakeview on Monday, November 30 from 4:30 p.m. to 6:30 p.m.

“Our goal is to be a one stop shop for area residents who would like to share ideas or receive help with local, state or federal issues,” Feigenholtz said. “The office is open and available year-round. If you would like to stop in and visit, we would always love to see you.”

The Open House will help local pantries, hospitals, and shelters by encouraging residents to donate food, toys, and warm winter clothing. All donations are being accepted at the district office on an ongoing basis during the months of November and December.

“I’m proud to serve Illinois’ Fifth District, representing them in Washington, D.C. and addressing their constituent service needs here at home,” said Rep. Quigley. “The Holiday Open House is a great opportunity for my staff to meet more of the Northside community, hear their thoughts about the issues that matter most to them, and find out how we can better help them in the district and D.C.”

“We are excited to showcase our combined 44th Ward Service Office,” Tunney said. “Please join us on Monday, November 30th to tour the office, meet our staffs, and share some holiday cheer.”
