Rep. Feigenholtz joins Legislative Colleagues in Tasteful Support of Chicago Police

Chicago – State Representative Sara Feigenholtz, today, joined Illinois Senate President John Cullerton (D-Chicago) and fellow State Rep. Ann Williams (D-Chicago) in a show of support for nearly 300 District 19 police officers in Chicago’s Lakeview and Lincoln Park neighborhoods.

Using personal funds, Feigenholtz and her statehouse colleagues provided a meal for each officer in the district during their respective shift and joined officers at the district headquarters this afternoon for lunch.

“Police officers have a pretty thankless job and put their lives on the line to protect us each and every day. We all felt they could use a pat on the back and this meal is just a small thank you to the officers that serve us in our neighborhoods,” said Feigenholtz.

“Our first responders have been under more pressure than ever before. This is our way of giving our local officers a pat on the back for keeping us safe,” said President Cullerton.

“On behalf of the entire community I represent, I am happy to show my support for the men and women who put their lives on the line each and every day on our behalf.” Williams said. “And for those who do, thank you for your willingness to serve in these very challenging times.”

Each officer assigned to Chicago police District 19 received a full meal during their respective shift on Thursday.

“It’s always humbling any time someone acknowledges the work you do in a positive way. Our officers truly appreciate the support and generosity of Representative’s Feigenholtz and Williams and President Cullerton,” said Robert Cesario.
