Feigenholtz, Cullerton Host Senior Health Fair at Weiss Memorial Hospital

CHICAGO – Representative Sara Feigenholtz (D-Chicago) and Senate President John J. Cullerton are joining Weiss Memorial Hospital to host their 5th annual Senior Health and Resource Fair on Friday, October 7th from 11:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. The Fair will take place at Weiss Hospital’s Senior Center located at 4646 N. Marine Drive.

This very popular health fair returns with more free screenings and classes. Participants can be screened for blood pressure readings, blood sugar levels, cholesterol levels, balance and strength testing, as well as healthy living tips, refreshments, and one-on-one consultations with doctors. There will be many opportunities to learn about local services for seniors.

Three classes will take place throughout the event where doctors will discuss hearing loss as we age, the purpose of getting a neuropsychological assessment, and the special oral health issues facing seniors.

“Chicago’s lakefront neighborhoods are wonderful areas for seniors to live and retire; there are so many community resources, living options, and healthcare providers,” said Feigenholtz. “The goal is to shed light on the array of local and state resources available to area seniors in a fun and educational setting.”

Representatives from 20 companies and government agencies will be on hand to share useful information about services and resources available to seniors.

Attendees should enter through the 4646 North Marine Drive entrance. For more information, contact Rep. Feigenholtz’s constituent service office at 773-296-4141, email sara@staterepsara.com, or visit www.staterepsara.com.
